

ILLEGAL DRUGS INCLUDING MARIJUANA

Family First believes a balanced and comprehensive strategy is needed to combat the increasing problem of substance misuse and abuse. The Party believes Australia's response to illegal drugs and health in general should primarily be preventative through educating the public as well as supporting rehabilitation services.

Family First rejects harm minimisation as the primary strategy for combating substance abuse. The Party favours prevention, rehabilitation and avoidance as more acceptable primary strategies.